violence by providing holistic healing for every member of the family.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d, Other Program Services:

The Victim/Survivor Therapy Program is primarily a group based intervention with the goal of supporting individuals to heal from the effects of abuse. Healing includes breaking isolation, becoming aware of choices, learning and practicing ways to protect and care for oneself, understanding abuse is not their fault, and reclaiming ones sense of self. Our program is 16 sessions long with semi-open groups of no more than 12 members at a time. Groups are co-facilitated and provide an educational component and process/support. Individual therapy is offered to supplement or assist in the group process as our philosophy is that people best heal from the trauma associated with abuse in community with others. In FY20 DAP served 161 clients through our survivor therapy programs.

The Men's Program or Intervention and Prevention Program is primarily a group-based intervention that serves adult individuals that use abusive behavior. The program meets state requirements for batterers intervention programs and incorporates trauma theory and relational treatment techniques in its work with people who have used abusive behavior in intimate partner relationships. Over the course of the program, individuals who have used abusive behaviors work to unpack core belief systems that influence abusive behaviors, accept responsibility for their actions and give presentations to their peer group on their plan for building and maintaining equal and interdependent relationships. The program is a minimum of 24 sessions long and combines cognitive behavioral therapy based psychoeducation with relational, trauma informed, and attachment based therapeutic processes. Some of the psychoeducation topics covered include: ending threats and controlling behavior, assertive communication, expressing anger non-abusively, and managing stress. People in group also complete and present a Self-Control Plan, Taking Responsibility for Abusive Behavior reflection assignment and Maintenance Plan to remain non-violent in order to complete the program. Individual therapy is offered to supplement or assist in the process of group or once the individual has completed their group process and could be supported by ongoing individual programming. In FY20 DAP served 189 clients through our intervention and prevention program.

The Youth and Early Childhood Program offers free therapeutic services to children who are seeking to heal from the effects of domestic violence. Our youth programming serves ages birth-18-years and consists of group therapy, individual therapy, and parent-child dyadic early childhood therapy. Through all our youth programs it is our priority that children learn that abuse is not their fault, they are not alone in their experiences, and they begin to find healing through supportive and caring relationships. In addition, 100% of our youth clients who graduate group leave with a personalized safety plan. In FY20 DAP served 16 early childhood clients, 41 caregivers, and 64 youth clients.
